Code of Conduct for Students

- On the first day of college, the student has to attend an orientation program with his/her parents so as to get detailed information of college and course. Importantly the ward and parent has to sign the Undertaking framed by the college comprising Rules and Regulations of the University and College. The title of the course is Bachelor of Pharmacy, abbreviated as B.Pharm, is four year Degree course having semester pattern, where four years are divided into eight semesters as semester I & II (First Year B.Pharm), semester III & IV (Second Year B.Pharm), semester V & VI (Third Year B.Pharm) and semester VII & VIII (Final Year B.Pharm) A student has to attend 80 % theory and practical classes.
- If the attendance is below 80%, the student may be detained by the College from theory and practical periodic examination and by the University from theory and practical semester examination. In any medical case, if a health problem exists then only 5 % relaxation will be given (i.e. minimum 75% attendance is compulsory) provided a proper Medical Certificate issued by a Medical Officer having minimum M. B. B. S. Degrees are produced before commencement of periodic and / or semester exams, whatsoever is the case.
- A student failing in not more than two theory and one practical heads of semester I & II shall be promoted to semester III. However, if a student fails in more than two theory and one practical heads of semester I & II taken together then the student will not be promoted to semester III. This pattern applies for III & IV and V & VI semesters. A student failing in semester I, III, V & VII shall be promoted to next higher semester i.e. II, IV, and VI & VIII irrespective of the number of subject heads in which the student is failing.
- A student will be considered as passed in the semester only when the student passes in all subject heads and obtains a minimum of 50 % of the aggregate marks.
- If a student remains absent in either periodic theory test or periodic practical test then he/she will be given an absent mark and no retest will be conducted. The student has to write the class test and complete assignments in due course of time. Journals are required to be completed and get checked on the same day of the practical class.
- The student is required to reach the college before half an hour. He/she cannot leave the college before time as given in the regular time table. Identity card is compulsory to carry every day without which the student will not get entry into the college. If any student damages property of the college then he/she will be penalized by the disciplinary committee of the college.
- Use of mobile phones in college campuses and examination halls is not allowed.
- Dress code: For girls, dress above the knee and singlet is not allowed.
